5 Are you here to tell us your 'one big thing'?

Your one big thing::

ME/CFS should be classed and recognized by the government & health system as a disability. Having this illness long term needs assistance & access & removal of barriers to assistance through the provision of home help/assistance, respite & care.
Currently I am using all available energy to survive, make meals, clean up after myself & basic hygiene. There is little energy for time with family or friends. I feel very unsupported apart from the support group Canterbury Me/cfs.
Not only have we been neglected by the health system & the ministry of health but our families have been affected. I was unable to care for my children so they have been impacted as well.
